PILSEN BEER PRODUCTION INCREASING -- Svobodne Slovo, No 52, 3 Mar 49

Once more Pilsen is supplying beer to the world. During 1948 its breweries produced 540,000 hectoliters of beer, or 26,000 hectoliters more than in 1937. Although not all air-raid damage has been repaired, as many as 600,000 hectoliters of beer can be produced this year if there is no shortage of raw materials.

Last year 20,000 hectoliters of beer were exported, especially to France, Belgium, and the US. Nine-percent beer is exported to England.
